SUMMARY

Product designer with 10+ years turning complex products and workflows into intuitive experiences for Nasdaq, UPS and The Weather Channel through interaction design, information architecture, prototyping, design systems and usability testing.

EXPERIENCE

Nasdaq
06/2025 – Present

UX Content Designer

- Owned design, prototyping and buildout of 60% of Nasdaq.com's redesigned sitemap, which launched in Q3 2026.
- Restructured navigation and information architecture; led a content audit that retired or consolidated about 15% of pages to cut rebuild time.
- Built content-first Figma prototypes integrating UX copy and interactions, cutting stakeholder review cycles by 25%.
- Ran 12+ usability tests and used analytics to refine the sitemap; defined Drupal CMS requirements that cut update time by 40%.
- Led a four-person content team; partnered with product managers, developers, UX/UI designers and product marketers.

Intercontinental Exchange (ICE)
05/2024 – 05/2025

Marketing Manager, Futures

- Led UX content strategy for ICE.com's Futures experience, restructuring complex information and user flows to improve clarity, navigation and self-service; conducted stakeholder interviews to identify pain points.
- Partnered with UX/UI designers to restructure complex data tables and charts for accessibility and clarity; connected daily clearing tables to the database so they update automatically.

UPS
11/2019 – 03/2024

Senior Web Content Designer / UX Team Lead

- Led UX and content design for the global UPS.com redesign spanning 220+ sites, contributing to a Forrester UX score increase from 40% to 92% and a 2024 Webby Award Honoree recognition for Best User Experience.
- Redesigned The UPS Store information architecture, consolidating a 110-page site into an 8-page experience and reducing ongoing maintenance by 75%.
- Partnered with UX, product, engineering and business teams to launch component-based experiences; established scalable UX patterns and editorial standards and mentored and trained 15+ team members in UX, CMS and accessibility.

The Weather Channel
10/2015 – 02/2019

Digital Editor

- Optimized desktop and mobile experiences using audience and engagement data, increasing click-through rate by 22%.
- Managed workflows for a newsroom producing 100+ stories weekly; reported on hurricanes, floods, wildfires and climate change, including the award-winning Exodus: Climate Migration Crisis series.

SELECTED PROJECT

Line Change
